

A DELICIOUS STROLL THROUGH PARIS

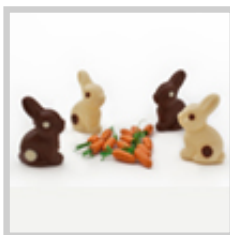

As Easter approaches, the capital's master chocolatiers vie in culinary ingenuity to conjure up the most astonishing and delicious chocolate eggs, chickens and rabbits imaginable. So why not take advantage of these chocolate-coated festivities to treat your taste buds?

HÔTEL RITZ

A massive Easter party at the Ritz, with orchids in the lobby and real rabbits frolicking in the garden! On April 24th, a very chocolaty brunch will be offered, followed by confectionery lessons for children.

15 place Vendôme 75001 Paris
+33 (1) 43 16 30 80

LA MAISON DU CHOCOLAT

Spring is in the air at the Maison du Chocolat, where you can sample an astonishing and colorful all-chocolate Easter garden, with cabbages, carrots, radishes and garden rabbits!

225, rue du Faubourg-Saint-Honoré 75008 Paris
+33 (1) 42 77 39 44

PIERRE HERMÉ

Pierre Hermé is a real culinary artist who has concocted creations for you in the shape of tribal masks and eggs as finely crafted as jewels. Once you have tasted them you will understand why he is known as the "Picasso of confectionery".

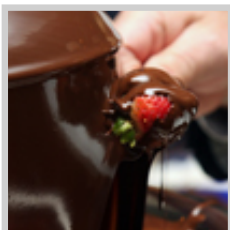

72 rue Bonaparte 75006 Paris
+33 (1) 43 54 47 77

MICHEL CLUIZEL

Fashionistas will adore the Chocolatbag by Michel Cluizel, with handle and zipper, made entirely from milk and dark chocolate. Three colors are available: brown, red and pink. Feast your eyes on it before taking a bite!

201 rue du Saint-Honoré 75001 Paris
+33 (1) 42 44 11 66

BERCY VILLAGE

Continue your chocolaty walk to Bercy Village, where a giant chocolate fondue and children's workshops are offered.

Cour Saint-Emilion 75012 Paris

Rediscover the child in you with a massive Easter egg hunt across all of Paris!